Board Seeks Source Of Sun Information

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors Tuesday requested County Social Welfare Director William Golden to contact The Sun and determine the name of the author of a letter which appeared in the June 5 issue of The Sun dealing with county welfare relief cases and expenditures.

Golden had previously telephoned Associate Editor Dick Osborn, who refused to divulge the source of the letter, which appeared over the initials "R. C."

The letter was read to the board by Golden, whose attention had been called to it by Supervisor James P. Kenny of the Richmond district.

THE BOARD TOOK no formal action, but Supervisor Mel Nielsen suggested that if Golden "couldn't get anywhere" in trying to ascertani the names of the relief cases cited in the letter, the editor of The Sun might be ordered to appear at the June 23 meeting of the board.

District Attorney John Nejedly pointed out that current California statutes prohibit forcing a newspaper man to reveal the source of his information, but added that the editor could be invited to the meeting to explain the fact that he is unwilling to reveal the evidence.

Golden, meanwhile, told The Sun that he is not in the least interested in the author of the letter or the owner of the apartment house, but simply wanted to investigate the cases cited.

HE ALSO ISSUED a plea for anyone knowing the names of these alleged cases to phone or write him anonymously and he would not reveal the names of the informants.

He stated that a special investigative unit of the County Welfare Department is working with Richmond police and the county assessor to find where such a 16-unit rooming house might be located.

Supervisor Mel Nielsen said, "All we want to do on the board is get to the bottom of this thing, if it's true, and find out where it is and who the persons are. If we don't get the names and addresses, we'll have to do the next best thing. This is very embarrassing to people in government.

"Such letters should be turned over to the county and they would be handled," he said.

NIELSEN CONCLUDED by saying, "If necessary we will subpoena the publisher and all the editors and they will be the most embarrassed editors and publishers, because when the board starts firing questions at them . . . there will be lots of reporters there, and it will be very embarrassing. . ."

In discussing the letter with Golden, Osborn pointed out a typographical error which listed the county welfare expenditures as having risen to over $40,000,000—it should have read $4 million, which is approximately correct.

He also explained that comments about the county welfare program are fairly common, with "tales" of expenditures for cases which appear fraudulent or simply wasteful occurring every two or three months.

GENERALLY THESE cases are either referred to the county or the individual with the information referred to the proper authorities, Osborn said.

Referring to the cases cited in the letter (see below for letter) Golden said, "However, the cases as described in the letter to the editor may have merit if the person is a recipient of old age security benefits.

"That is, if the old lady is doing her washing she may be permitted to use some of the federal money for sending it out. We don't want elderly people to die of heart attacks doing heavy washing. Then, the county assistance is increased, say by $2 per week, to make up for the $2 of federal funds she is using for laundry.

"AS FOR television sets, it is difficult to comment when we don't know all the facts. For example ,a man who was disabled had nine children plus a wife. An investigator saw that he had bought a TV set and upbraided him for it.

"The man said, 'Look, I got the set with no down payment; part of the budget the worker set up for me includes so much for entertainment. I use that much each month to pay the installments. What are you going to do with nine kids in the house? I can't afford to EVER take them to the movies.' "

Commenting on this type of case, Golden added, "If we are in the wrong we will admit it; we are not infallible. We give honest reports and if these situations exist we want to know about them. And the public has a right to know."

Our Policy: We'll Protect Sources

AN EDITORIAL

The Sun will not reveal the sources of its information, unless permission is granted by the informant.

This policy, which is guaranteed by State law and which is observed by responsible newspapers, is maintained for obvious reasons.

Many people come to The Sun with information. Sometimes they fear reprisal. Sometimes they simply do not want publicity. We will honor their requests for anonymity, as we have in the past, and as we will continue do to so in the future.

OUR LETTERS to the editor columns are open to everybody. We print hundreds of them each year. Many of these are printed with "name withheld by request." This means that the writer has signed the letter, but his identity is preserved by The Sun.

We will not print unsigned letters.

The information that appears in the letter column represents the opinion of the people who choose to use this method of expressing themselves. These columns are open to everybody, and if statements appear there which do not agree with any individual's way of thinking, then the column is always open for reply.

WE WILL NOT dictate to people what they may or may not say in their letters. Sometimes the facts are confused, as perhaps the people are confused. It is not the purpose of this newspaper to tell people how to think, but to give them the information and let them think as they please.

And thinking as they please, they have a right to free expression. That is what our letter to the editor column is for, and that is the way it will reman.

If any of our sources choose to take their information or material to an official body, or elsewhere, that is their right. But when they bring it to us they may be assured that it will be used as they wish, if at all possible.

This is the policy of The Sun. It will remain that way.

Here Is Text of Letter on Welfare Expenditures

Following is the text of the text of the letter referred to in the above stories, as it appeared in last week's issue of The Sun. If the writer wishes to contact William Golden or a mmeber of the board of supervisors, it is his privilege to do so.

Here is the letter:

Dear Editor:

You are probably aware that Contra Costa County welfare expenditures have risen from some $2,500,000 in 1953 to over $4,000,000. An acquaintance of mine owns a 16-unit rooming house in Richmond. All the renters are on relief. He was telling me about these recent incidents:

1. Renter John Doe could not pay his monthly rent because he had just bought a TV set and his relief check was not quite big enough to handle both.

The landlord finally threatened to go to the welfare agency. He did. The welfare agency raised the monthly stipend for John Doe so he could buy his TV set as well as pay his rent.

2. LANDLORD noticed a new telephone in one of the apartments. Congratulated the tenant. She said that the welfare lady had tried to get her on the phone. Discovering that she had no phone the welfare lady had come out to the apartment and scolded the tenant, saying that all she had to do was ask and they would of course put a telephone in and increase the monthly payments to cover the cost.

3. Renter Richard Roe was doing his own laundry. Welfare agent told him that was entirely unnecessary. They would certainly increase his checks so he could have his laundry done outside.

4. Three unmarried girls share another apartment. They are all classified as unemployables in spite of the fact that they are between 21 and 24 years of age. Apparantly they are unemployable because of the regularity with which they have children.

FOR THE landlord this is a happy situation to have 16 renters who have such steady incomes. He lives in Alameda County and chuckles at the suckers who live in Contra Costa County and foot the bills for this kind of nonsense.

If you want these cases verified, I'll be glad to ask the landlord if he would be willing to talk to you direct.

I'm not sending this as a letter to the editor for print, but for your information as fodder. You can print it over my initials if you want, but that wasn't the idea.

District Attorney Brands Grand Jury Charges False

County District Attorney John Nejedly has said a grand jury charge concerning recruitment of deputies in his office is "not true."

The jury said it is impossible to recruit deputies in the district attorney's office without allowing them to engage in private legal practice.

IN A LETTER to Edward A. Valentino, jury foreman, Nejedly said:

"I regret that the Grand Jury has made the wholly unfounded charge that civil service cannot secure high caliber, energetic individuals without the inducement of private practice. This statement is not true.

"I regret that the Grand Jury adopted the conclusions set forth without making any effort to secure the facts from the county civil service commission or myself.

"To gather this conclusion from one deputy in this office and the former district attorney without allowing me to present the facts is incredible to me."

Earlier, in a report released last week, the jury's law enforcement committee said Nejedly's ban against private practice has brought about "staffing and recruitment problems."

The committee is chairmaned by Craig Bull of Orinda.

Nejedly said the jurors should interview the county personnel director and the nine candidates for deputies' jobs.

THE CIVIL SERVICE commission and the board of supervisors should be consulted to determine whether or not a recruitment problem exists, he said.

Since Nejedly's election last November he has ordered all deputies to end whatever private cases they have as soon as practicable.

New employees were hired with the understanding they would not devote their time exclusively to the county.

Bull said his committee had interviewed several present and former deputies.

The group also talked with Alameda County's district attorney's office, he said.

In Alameda deputies are allowed to conduct limited private practice, it was said.

FORMER SALARY scale in Contra Costa County was from $530 to $644 a month in the initial grade, with a second classification with a range of $710 to $862.

The new schedule provides from $556 to $676 in the first grade to a range of $745 to $905 for the second grade.

This schedule was set up on the promise that new employees would not engage in outside private practice.

Second Hearing Set for County Master Plan

Another hearing on the proposed county master plan has been set for Tuesday, July 23.

The first session was held last Tuesday by the County Planning Commission.

Progress of the over all master plan was reported to the commission by Edward Radosevich, associate planner.

All general plans for central county areas except Orinda have been adopted by the planners.

A second hearing on the Orinda General Plan is set for June 30.

Radosevich explained that the countywide plan will include a park plan and plans for highways and industrial and agricultural areas.

In other actions Tuesday night the commission recommended denial of John D. Martin's application for a land use permit to establish a wrecking yard on the north side of Pacheco Boulevard, Vine Hill, immediately west of the Santa Fe Railroad.

The recommendation now goes to the board of supervisors.

Tentative maps were approved for Monte Gardens Village Unit 4, near Concord, and Tract 2729, east of Reliez Valley Road, Pleasant Hill.

Decided to make two June 26 field trips.

One of these inspections will be of the three-quarter acre parcel at Main and Center Streets, Pacheco regarding which the commission directed its staff to prepare findings in favor of B. P. Schleifer's request for change from retail business to general commercial.

The other site is less than a half acre on Lancaster Road, southwest Walnut Creek area, which May G. Stow wants rezoned from half-acre to multiple family residential-A, for development of apartments.

Hearing on this application was closed after Joseph Gardner, spokesman for many objectors from Westwood Park, adjacent to the site, voiced protests and presented a petition bearing 26 signatures. This petition was in addition to one which had been mailed and which contained 20 signatures.

Moraga Road Section Will Be Widened

Mel Neilsen, county supervisor of district II, has announced that the board of supervisors awarded a contract for the reconstruction and widening of a one-mile section of Moraga Road to Gallagher and Burk, Inc., of Oakland, who submitted the low bid of $85,446. There were 10 bidders on this subject The estimated construction cost was $89,000.

THE SECTION to be reconstructed extends from Rheem Boulevard to the summit of the hills one mile northerly.

The work consists essentially of widening the old road to provide two 12-foot traffic lanes and 8-foot shoulders

Major realignment of the road is not required

The new pavement section will consist of one foot of imported sub-base, six inches of untreated rock base and 2½ inches of plant-mixed surfacing

Sight distance around the curves and at the summit will be greatly increased by the widening and grade line adjustment

Moraga Road has been assigned a high priority in the Tudor report and present construction has been planned to facilitate widening to four lanes when warranted by an increase in traffic.

NO DETOURS are available and traffic will be allowed to pass through the construction zone at all times with the minimum amount of interference consistent with construction operations.

The contractor should commence work within two weeks.

IT'S A LONG WAY to Lohja, Finland, but that's where Charlene Bond and Brian Cartwright are going at the end of this month as junior ambassadors under the sponsorship of Children's International Summer Villages, Inc. They will meet and live with children of approximately the same age from a variety of countries all over the world.

Camp in Finland to Be Attended by Youngsters

The young people, four from each country and all carefully selected for potential leadership qualities, will gather for a month in a green and wooded camp setting by a lake 35 miles southwest of Helsinki.

The 40 or so youngsters won't even have a language in common.

The program, inaugurated in 1951, is dedicated to developing among the potential leaders of all nations the desire and skills to build international understanding.

THE CISV PROGRAM was founded by Dr. Doris Twitchell Allen, a psychologist at the University of Cincinnati, and it operates now through voluntary contributions and participation on both sides of the Atlantic.

Prejudices, she has said, are emotionally based and become firmly fixed by early adulthood. To combat them, it is necessary to begin at the child-generation level and in a climate of emotional reciprocation, not an intellectual one.

The program itself is carefully planned to bring individual campers together through nonverbal activities such as sports, crafts, folk dancing, singing, camp fires, games and evening entertainment put on by the youngsters themselves.

From previous years' experience, it has been found that children of 11 quickly overcome the handicap of language differences through improvised means of communication, such as sign language or drawing, and really get to know one another.

Two young people from Orinda will depart for Lohja, Finland June 29 for an international summer camp where, as junior ambassadors, they'll rub elbows with the future leaders of a dozen or more foreign lands.

THEY ARE Charlene Bond, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger L. Bond, 120 Las Vegas, and Brian Cartwright, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Cartwright, 32 Estabueno. Both will enter Pinegrove School's seventh grade in the fall.

With Charles Collins of Mill Valley and Erica Black of San Francisco, they comprise the entire United States delegation to the Lohja camp, one of five being sponsored this year by Children's International Summer Villages, Inc.

The Bay Area group will be accompanied by Mrs. Robert Lynne of San Mateo.

Other camps are in England, Norway, Denmark and Philadelphia.

THE DELEGATES to Lohja, all approximately 11 years old, will come from such nations as Japan, Canada, Mexico, France, Israel, Austria and perhaps some of the Eastern Bloc countries.

Is It Vandalism Wave or Summer Vacation Fever??

By JACK SEYMOUR

Is it the approach of summer vacations or is it a minor vandalism wave?

Puzzled school officials, law enforcement agencies and parents were wondering this during the past few weeks as incidents involving petty—and some not so petty— damage in schools.

IT BEGAN with the smashing of furniture and general destruction of a first grade classroom at Montecito School, Walnut Creek, late last month.

Damage there was estimated at more than $1000.

At about the same time at Buena Vista School water fountains were smashed.

In the new Del Valle High School tar was pitched about.

Shortly after the Montecito incident, Fairview School in Lafayette reported four fire cabinets were ripped open and extinguishers stolen. They were valued at $154.

The same night, vandals turned on a hose at Vallecito School.

FORTUNATELY, a faculty member working late at night discovered water leaking into a classroom.

Pete Jensen, maintenance supervisor, was on the scene promptly and cleaned up the mess.

The school district, of course, must pay for his time.

On the last day of May, five windows were smashed at Montecito School, at a replacement cost of almost $50.

Five shrubs were uprooted and a fire extinguished cabinet tampered with at the same time.

Almost $20 in custodial time was the cost here.

A large window in the multi-use room at Stanley School, Lafayette, was smashed on June 5. Replacement cost: $68.30.

A Fruit-O-Matic machine was smashed and apples and oranges taken.

Profits from the sale of fruit go on a percentage basis to the student body and the vendor.

HANSEN SAID school authorities "don't believe the Stanley School damage was done by our children."

Sheriff's deputies, who are investigating all these cases, say it is generally thought the vandalism is the "work of older boys."

A Stanley School classified employee (not-teaching staff) saw a car fliled with teen - agers "speeding away" from the school the night of the damage.

Earlier in the month, juveniles from San Ramon High School were caught by Walnut Creek police as they were siphoning gasoline from cars.

This week persons unknown smashed soft drink bottles in the Walnut Creek Recreation Center men's room.

Walnut Creek police suspect it was the work of juveniles.

Michael A. Ratto of Walnut Creek, a student at Las Lomas High, reported this week that someone pulled out the spark plugs of his car and threw a beer can it it while it was parked in the school parking lot.

Las Lomas Principal Lee Russell has asked Walnut Creek police for surveillance of the school's parking area.

Russell reported he had observed "reckless driving" for three straight days in the parking lot.

Fourteen gallons of gas were siphoned from an automobile belonging to Mrs. Shyrle De Haven of Pleasant Hill this week.

AGAIN, youngsters are suspected.

Meanwhile, the Orinda School District has had no cases of vandalism of any kind, according to Superintendent Joseph Sheaff.

And — to further brighten the Orinda picture — the Miramonte High School Student Council has adopted a Teen Age Code of Conduct.

This code sets forth rules for parent - teen age relationships, conduct at parties, and regulations for teen age drivers.

IT WAS drawn up by a student committee which studied existing teen age codes in the United States and in 400 California High Schools.

The code will be submitted for student body approval in the fall.

As schools close this week for summer vacation, precautionary measures are being taken to assure adequate protection for area buildings.

In Alameda County, sheriff's reservists are used to patrol school buildings and grounds, according to Hansen.

BUT IN Contra Costa County the reservists are used to augment the regular sheriff's force.

The reservists in Alameda patrol school property in automobiles furnished by school districts. They buy their own uniforms, as do all reservists.

4-H Club Girls Work on Their Record Books

The Orinda 4H Club recently held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. R. Monosmith, 70 Sleepy Hollow Lane. Members worked on record books, gave demonstrations, and discussed coming events.

Present were Daun Dressler, Kathleen Stillson, Jaynie Saxton, Wendy Impett, Sylvia Howes, Alice Monosmith, Donna Salet, Stephanie Clark, Hazel Edmonds, Carol Thomas, Kathleen Halloran, Joyce Baker and Judi Baker.

Demonstrations were given on sewing, gardening, and table-setting.

WHERE TO PARK in downtown Orinda? It is a problem and it's getting worse. This photograph, taken from the roof of the Orinda Theatre, shows how most available parking space is filled. This was taken in the middle of the afternoon, not during the peak hours when congestion causes many a motorist to abandon all hope of getting out of the tangle. The Sun last week editorially called upon community groups to get together and attempt some solution of the existing situation.

The previous winners came from Lafayette and Alamo, but you may be this week's winner if you live in any of the communities served by The Sun. All you have to do is bring the picture in to any of The Sun offices and prove that you are the Sun Lucky Commuter, and you'll walk out the richer.

But there's more, too! Each week five license numbers are printed and to each of the owners of the license numbers goes a $5 cash prize and a year's subscription to The Sun—if these lucky commuters will drop in to any Sun office and prove that they have the car.

The pictures of Sun Lucky Commuters which appear in The Sun each week have been taken in Alamo, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Lafayette, Orinda and Moraga, and Sun photographer Rod Lomas has been a busy boy.

There is no telling when you may show up in this choice spot, so keep your eyes on the Sun Lucky Commuter Contest.

You, or one of your neighbors may be the next winner!

Recognize Your Lucky License Number Below?

Here are the lucky license numbers in the Sun's Lucky Commuter Contest this week:

Lafayette Man Buys San Ramon

The third major property deal in two weeks in the San Ramon area has been announced with sale of an 18-acre property owned by Annie E. Silveira, 80, Bollinger Canyon Road.

This parcel, located largely in a commercial-zoned district was purchased by James C. Kilpatrick, Lafayette, reportedly for $90,000.

Like the 98-acre parcel at Crow Canyon Road purchased by Kilpatrick from Lynch estate heirs, this acreage was sold through the office of Louis E. (Chick) Reark, Orinda realtor.

The Silveira 18-acre parcel was listed through Sunny Read, Danville realtor.

Mrs. Silveira is the widow of John B. Silveira. They owned the parcel for many years as agricultural property. It is adjacent to what was the old San Ramon school site.

Kilpatrick has indicated no immediate plans for the development of the two properties, but both are considered important in future San Ramon developments, after the freeway is constructed.

The car was recovered in San Jose.

The juvenile was arrested in his fourth stolen car in Salinas

First car was stolen in Sacramento; car number two in Walnut Creek, and three and four in San Jose and Salinas, respectively.

Diablo Jr. Museum Workshops to Start

The Diablo Junior Museum will again present a summer workshop program in natural science this year, and it is expected that the classes will again be filled to capacity as they have been in past years.

Two separate classes will be held, one at Diablo Valley College for youngsters 9½ years and older, the second at Walnut Creek School for youngsters over seven.

The class at Walnut Creek school will start Monday and continue through July 25, the day of the annual science fair. It will be held in the kindergarten building. The fee remains at $5, and the class will involve one period per week, 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. or 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

These classes will include work in both field and classroom, under the direction of Instructor William Johnson.

THE COURSE FOR older children will begin the week of June 22 and run for six weeks through July 31. It will involve a lab session and a field trip each week for all participants, under the direction of Ferd Ruth of the junior college staff.

The fee is $6.50. Entrants are asked to indicate when they register whether this is their first or second year of participation in the program.

There will be four groups meeting at the junior college. Group one meets Monday, 9-10:30 a.m. and Tuesday, 2-4 p.m.; Group two, Monday, 11-12:30, Tuesday, 9-12; Group three, Wednesday 9-10:30, Thursday 9-12 and Group four, Wednesday 11-12:30 and Thursday, 1-4 p.m.

The office is located at Walnut Creek School, 2425 Walnut Boulevard.

Already youngsters are flocking to join the program, and those who participated last year remember the fun of working in the lab and in the field with live animals, insects, birds and reptiles.

The program is open to any youngster in the Diablo Valley Area, including Lafayette, Orinda, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill and Alamo.

'Marathon' Driving Is Dangerous

"Marathon" driving is a deadly enemy of the motorist on vacation, warns the California State Automobile Association.

Many vacationers, traveling on limited time and financial resources, try to pack the maximum amount of driving into their trip, says the AAA motorists' organization, and thereby increase the possibility of having a traffic accident.

The driver who tries to set an endurance record on his vacation trip runs the risk of extreme fatigue which reduces alertness and reaction time, reports the CSAA.

The CSAA offers these suggestions for safer vacation trips:

Start your trip early in the morning so you can also stop early. It is a good rule to drive not more than seven hours in a day. Longer driving stints are dangerous.

During your trip, stop every two hours for rest and refreshment. In this way your driving efficiency remains at a maximum level throughout the day.

If more than one passenger in the car can drive, take turns at the wheel.

Drowsiness and "highway hypnosis" are constant threats to the motorist on long trips. To avoid them, converse with others in the car or listen to snappy music on the car radio. Keep a window open. Also, avoid heavy meals during your trip.

Above all, let moderation be your guide. Plan a sensible driving scredule and then stick to it.

Art Show Will Be Featured At Broadway Jamboree

Two vivacious young women are the movement to "bring art to the people."

They are responsible for the forthcoming "Art Show" at the Broadway Shopping Center Thursday, June 18 through Saturday, June 20, during the June Jamboree sales event.

The "sidewalk art exhibit" will be on view from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. and on Friday until 9 p.m.

The former school teachers, University of California graduates, are Wanda Hansen and Jamie Peterman.

Both 24, they got "in the art business" as an aftermath of a sculpturing course in Carmel.

They found that art was plentiful in Carmel—but buyers were relatively scarce.

So they decided to market artists' work where the people are.

It was rough going at first—there were problems of exhibiting paintings and storing others.

But word got around that the firm of Hansen and Peterman was doing the almost impossible—"selling paintings."

Now they are bringing art to the people at low prices—work by noted California artists.

This brings good art to people who cannot afford a Picasso or an Old Master.

At the Broadway Art Show you will see work by such outstanding artists as William Weber, Anna Wu Weakland, Ken Potter and Tom Elliot.

Also Harold and Mabel Landaker, Pat Cucaro and Rip Matteson.

The artists have won many major awards for their paintings in exhibitions throughout the United States and abroad.

Other winners are Wilfrid Provan, Robert Watson and Peter Blos.

All of these artists and many more will have their work on display at the Art Show.

There will be art demonstrations daily.

Of course, all paintings are for sale. Installments are accepted by the team of Hansen and Peterman.

Make a date to visit the Broadway June Jamboree and Art Show, June 18 through 20 from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. except Friday when stores are open until 9 p.m.

During the June Jamboree-Art Show at the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek, the center stores are featuring outstanding values.

Acalanes Unification Placed in Committee Study

Six sub-committees have been formed by the Contra Costa County Committee on School District Organization to study financial and educational implications of the proposed unificatoin of school districts within the area of Acalanes Union High School District.

Members of the committee, which met last week at Acalanes High School, approved the committee and chairmen suggested by Dr. Jack Shahbazian, chairman.

Assignments and chairmen are assessed valuation, W. B. Scarborough of Lafayette; staffing patterns (administrative titles, teacher tenure, etc.), J. G. Ainsworth of Orinda; population projects, Alex D. Lindsay of Walnut Creek; articulation, Mrs. Helen Brattain of Lafayette; salary schedules, Don Falconer of Moraga; and services, W. W. Lee of Walnut Creek.

On the basis of data collected by the committees, three organizational proposals under study will be compared.

They are: (1) unification of the present five elementary districts and the high school district; (2) formation of three unified districts, and (3) maintenance of the present six separate districts.

Miss High School Fashion Show Held at Capwell's

The "Miss High School" fashion show was held at Capwell's Walnut Creek last Saturday in the Collegienne department.

The latest in spring and summer fashions for vacation wear for the teenage and college set were presented by 33 girls from 11 local high schools. The commentary was by Mrs. Pat Fink, fashion coordinator.

One girl from each school was chosen as a member of the high school board by means of a three-part system—the fashion show, a personal interview, and a popularity poll among the girls participating. These winners are: Ann Evans, Acalanes; Jackie Silva, Alhambra; Nita Tonso, Antioch; Margaret Norman, Las Lomas; Barbara Roe, Clayton Valley; Vicki McCosker, Miramonte; Judy Jones, Mt. Daiblo; Connie Miller, Pacifica; Lee Ann Edison, Pittsburg; Katie Hill, Pleasant Hill; and Barbara Hainline, San Ramon.

The board members act in an advisory capacity and as members of the selling staff.

They will also participate in two additional fashion shows in the fall during the back-to-school period.

Following the fashion show, the winners were announced at an open house Coke party held in the training rooms at Capwell's.

All the girls received souvenir gifts, and the winners were also presented with merchandise gift certificates.

Joint Rotary-School Effort Will Give Jobs to Students

Need a baby sitter? A part-time gardener? A clerk to fill in at your store during vacation time?

Ah—then just dial YEllowstone 5-4110, and your problem will be solved.

That's the number of the clearing center set up by the Walnut Creek Rotary Club to help students at Acalanes, Las Lomas and Miramonte High Schools find summer employment.

THE PROGRAM has been approved by the Acalanes Union High School District, and will be carried out in cooperation with commercial departments at all three schools.

Here's the way it will work:

Staff personnel will take requests telephoned into the schools for summer help. Volunteer Rotarians then will select the right student for the job from a card file and arrange an interview.

The card file will list each student's age, sex, aptitudes, special training, home address and other pertinent data. Registered students also will have been recommended on the basis of good citizenship and ability.

THE IDEA was the brainchild of Dr. Dwight S. Potter, a Rotarian. It was worked out with Clarence Kissler, faculty advisor for the work experience at Las Lomas High.

Initial spadework was done by Rotarians Bruce Lee and Roy Hjersman.

Volunteers staffing the job clearing center will be William McIntosh, Chet Ninekird, Ben Brockhurst, Hank Drabin, Stuart Loe, Stan Lesher, Lee Chamberlin, Verne Snedden and B. O. Wilson.

A similar program is in effect in the Mt. Diablo Unified School District.

In the Alamo-Danville-San Ramon area a program also is underway at San Ramon Valley Union High School.

PLANNING NEWS

Dear Editor:

In its May 29 issue the Orinda Sun neglected to report a significant action by the County Planning Commission. In the prior issue (May 22) The Sun failed to carry any news about the Orinda General Plan hearing which had been set for May 26. Considering your previous editorial supports of vigorous and effective planning for Orinda, we hope your omitting news of these events represents no basic change in this policy.

At its May 26 meeting the Planning Commission recommended approval of a request to rezone 16 acres above Oak Springs from R-A (half acre) to R-15 (15,000 square feet). This decision was made unanimously over the objections of the Orinda Association and the Oak Springs Improvement Association and was contrary to what we understand was the recommendation of the commission's technical staff. No community organizations appeared in support of the rezoning request.

The decision was made immediately following the General Plan hearing, at which The Orinda Association urged retention of a two-families-per-acre density standard in Orinda.

Several reasons were offered by the commission in support of rezoning. By presenting the facts and arguments on this case, The Sun can help its readers evaluate these arguments and decide whether or not this rezoning decision was in the best interests of the Orinda community.

Its readers must rely on The Sun as a major source of information on local governmental actions affecting Orinda. We hope you will expand your coverage of Planning Commission actions and keep us well informed.

RICHARD M. BARTLE

(Editor's Note: The Sun's lead story in the May 29 edition was about the planning commission discussion of the Orinda General Plan. Most of the text of the Orinda Association's letter to the commission was printed.)

Go to Church Sunday

Episcopal

Services of Holy Communion at 8 a.m., family worship at 9:15 a.m., morning prayer at 11 a.m.,

Sixty working days are allowed and evening prayer at 5:30 p.m. Episcopal Church, St. Stephen's after Trinity at St. Stephen's Drive and Las Vegas Road, Orinda.

Family worship at 9:15 is a service designed designed to accustom children to church attendance and to provide them with continuous religious instruction during the church school recess, at the same time offering a satisfying worship experience for adults.

It will consist of a shortened form of morning prayer with a sermonette by the Rev. Albert Lucas, rector. Beginning Sunday, June 21, this service will be held at 9 a.m. throughout the summer.

At the 11 o'clock service this Sunday, during which nursery care will be available in the basement of the rectory, the senior choir will sing under the direction of Richard Colvig, and organist. The offertory anthem will be "Teach Me, O Lord" by Atwood.

At 5:30 p.m. there will be an evening prayer service of thanksgiving for the ministry of Mr. Lucas, who leaves St. Stephen's at the end of the month to assume the duties of rector at Trinity Episcopal Church, Bend Oregon.

The service will be conducted entirely by lay members of the congregation, with James Buxton and Philip Jelley, lay leaders, officiating Participating in the preparation and conduct of the service will be members of the Young People's Fellowship Cottage Groups, senior choir, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, Alter Guild, acolytes, ushers, and Boy Scout Troop 247, which is sponsored by the church

Following the service at 6:30 p.m. a supper honoring Mr. and Mrs. Lucas will be served in Hill Memorial Hall. Members of the Seabury (couples) Club will decorate the hall for the occasion, and the supper will be prepared by members of the guilds of the Episcopal Church Women of St. Stephen's.

Mrs. Richard Fayram and Mrs. B. W. West are in charge of arrangements for the evening. It is hoped that those who are unable to come to the supper will find it possible to attend the service.

It's Only Money... But It's OUR Money!

Hey, fellas, give us a break!

The "us" is every taxpayer in the county, and we're talking to every member of every board that has taxing powers.

We've been reading the newspapers—The Sun and others—and we've been going to meetings.

We've found out that everybody is raising their tax rates. It's horrible!

The basic county tax is going up, and the junior college district tax is going up, and some of the other school district taxes are going up. We just don't know where is will all stop, that's all.

WE KNOW THAT you are all working like dogs to hold the line, but for gosh sakes, remember us, will you. We're the little guys with the thin wallets that don't contain anything but credit cards anymore.

And did you ever try to pay your tax bill with a credit card?

And then there's the problem of the assessments going up. This will make us pay out a few more bucks. And of course, it would be bad enough if our tax bills were higher this year just because of the increase in the county tax rate.

But when you consider the smaller increases in the myriad districts that provide our services, the whole thing becomes ludicrous.

It's no laughing matter . . . in fact, it's darn near critical.

WE DIDN'T THINK much, for example, of the county going along with the 75 per cent subsidy of the health and welfare plan for county employees. There are darn few, if any industries that pay even 50 per cent of their employees' health plan premiums, and we think this is just one instance of where the line could have been held.

Of course we realize that we can't scream if the tax line is held and we don't get all the services we would like, because we know that you gets what you pays for.

And that's what we want to be sure of—that we do get what we pay for. So please, consider every economy and tighten every nut and bolt you can find in those big government machines.

Squeeze every dime out of every budget request you can, because there are going to be some pretty gloomy faces come tax bill time. It will be horrible.

WE KNOW THAT some of the budgets have already been made up and are pretty well committeed. But a lot of them have a ways to go yet, and we implore all you people who control the purse strings to please remember us.

Hey Ma, Seen My Gloves?

It's just one big playground!

Well, not quite, but you've got to admit that Central Contra Costa County is sprouting games and programs all over the place now that summer is upon us and school is no longer with us.

Baseball! That Summer Madness of America is here with a flourish. If you are a commuter (bless you!) take a look along the roads as you drive wearily home at the end of the day.

What do you see? Why scads of lads wearing various degrees of baseball apparel. Some have only the hats, some a glove, too, and some complete with jerseys and that professional squint in the eye.

AND WHEN YOU'RE doing your shopping on a Saturday, you'll notice that these pixie baseball players are haunting the grocery markets, too, and even breaking training with an occasional coke or ice cream cone.

But baseball is not all that is with us. Each of our communities has a fine recreation program going and there are budding swimmers and archers and all kinds of sportsmen abounding in the area.

We think this is just great, and it's time to commend the hundreds of people involved in these programs . . . the paid personnel and the volunteers.

Think of the hundreds of miles that are put on the family car, just hauling baseball teams around! Who does the driving? Nine times out of ten, we'll bet on mother! (We'll also bet dad gets his licks in, too!)

IT ALL PROVES that plenty of cooperation exists in our friendly communities, because it takes all kinds of cooperation to run a successful summer recreation program.

Merchants cooperate by sponsoring ball clubs; parents cooperate in a number of ways, by coaching, transporting kids, helping out with volunteer work, and the paid members of the staff, where they exist, work hard too.

It all adds up to a healthful, happy summer for our children, and what more can we ask from a summer recreation program or programs?

A Committee Error, Maybe?

No group of men can be 100 per cent right all the time.

The editorial columns of The Sun have been devoted, many times during the past year, to the excellent work of the Grand Jury.

But we feel that this time the Grand Jury—or perhaps, the law enforcement committee of the Grand Jury, is in error.

This group has said that deputy district attorneys should be permitted to engage in private law practice. This is directly opposed to the policy of District Attorney John Nejedly and also to the recommendations of previous Grand Juries.

THE COMMITTEE, under the chairmanship of V. Craig Bull said in a report that Nejedly's ban against private practice has created staffing and recruitment problems.

This has been denied by Nejedly. It seems obvious that this is a last-minute deal on the part of the Grand Jury committee, because that group did not check either with Nejedly or with the county civil service commission.

Certainly it is wrong to release such statements about a county official without checking with him or his department for the facts in the case first.

We feel that any move that would constitute a return to the spoils system, which we have had under previous administrations, would be a wrong move.

NEJEDLY POINTED out that it was obvious the wish of the people of this county to have a full-time district attorney and staff, and that he intends to keep it this way.

It was Nejedly's contention at campaign time, and we agreed with him, that good deputies should be paid more and devote their full efforts to county business.

This is being done in the district attorney's office at present, and we do not think that it should change.

Evidently this was a hasty move on the part of the Grand Jury committee, and it deserves reconsideration.

We still believe that a full time district attorney and a full time staff of deputies is a must for our district attorney's office.

Don't Touch Me...It Hurts!

By DICK OSBORN

You have no idea how much it hurts to type out this column!

This week I am in pain, and misery loves company, so I figure about 40,000 readers can darn well suffer along with me. (Okay, akay, so you won't read any further. Just don't expect me to sympathize when YOU have troubles!)

This isn't a mental kind of hurt, like when you have to write a story about someone in trouble—this is strictly physical.

You see, I'm stiff—stiff as a plank.

I CAN ALREADY hear my thousands of detractors smirking behind the woodwork and making snide remarks about my personal habits and the hair of the dog and all that slush, but for once, they're wrong.

My muscles hurt!

And it's all the fault of a business-type friend of mine— a fellow who owns a carpet company. (No free plugs today, Al, sorry!)

He likes to go fishing, and he invited me along to this "nice little spot just a couple of miles off the road."

He was right. It was a couple of miles off the road—straight down! That was fine. It was the two-and-a-half hours spent climbing back straight UP that caused all the trouble.

THIS IS MY PROBLEM, friends. I used to sneer at the poor business men who sat behind desks all day and didn't keep in shape. Me, I get plenty of exercise opening mail and listening to music and active things like that.

But some of these jokers delight in galloping over the hills like cotton-plucking goats. They're SICK, that's what!

So next time you go in to buy a carpet, or some drapes, or a bar of soap, or something, take a look at your friendly neighborhood merchant.

CHANCES ARE HE'S got sinews of steel and a mind sharpened by the pure mountain air.

But don't stop in this newspaper office looking for that type. We're all run down and dissipated. That fellow you see hobbling off down the street wincing will be me—for about another week.

And right now I'm going to hobble off to a trout dinner. We all got limits, so there's some justice in the world.

Hey, There! You With The Stars in Your Eyes!

By MARIE MONAHAN

WELL, there's No Grad like an Old Grad! So off to Commencement this week. Just an innocent bystander, bolstered up with a bit of facial tissue.

It is a Heart-thumping time—observing Youth in its prime. It is enough to stir even the toughest soul to tearing the tissue to shreds.

THE Young Women, dewy-eyed darlings, walking regally past on their new high-heeled pumps. The sheen in their hair & the blush on their cheek. (There may be a blister on their heel but they'd never let you know it!)

Oh, I tell you, it is an emotional experience!

The young men, heads held high & caps squared away, wink slyly to their Mothers or steal a glance at their Best Girls. HAIL to thee, O Alma Mater . . .

IN THE audience, the Kleenex crumples & Memories come pouring back.

Around us sit kid brothers, little sisters, Grandparents & misty-eyed fathers. You can tell Mother by the dabbing of her new white lace handkerchief. Grandmother is too busy bouncing Junior on the lap & shushing him quiet to think of crying herself.

BUT GRANDPA . . . Well! He is going back, back . . . yessir, (aren't we all!) THOSE were the Good Old Days!

There is something about young faces looking to the Future that gets you right in the Old Palpitator. Remember how it felt to be on top of the World?

The trouble with School or College, you don't appreciate it till you're OUT of it.

Then you'd give anything to go back!

When you're graduating you think you know EVERYTHING! When you're older, you realize you don't know BEANS & Boy, would you like a chance to try again!

THE GRADS all have stars in their eyes. A whole galaxy, glistening in a glow of sudden Grown-Upness.

"Reach for the Stars," they used to tell us. It is still good advice . . .

IT'S A BIG Wide Wonderful World.

If you dream a little & wear rose-colored glasses, well, all the better. Look for the Good. There's a lot more of it than some folks let on. And the Bad, well, you can make it better.

THE ORGAN pumps Tannhauser, the heart pounds away & WE'RE out of Kleenex. It's Your World, Grads, Go to it & Good Luck!

Letters to The Editor

FLUORIDATION
Dear Editor:

As you have heard, or soon will be hearing, opponents of fluoridation often refer to fluoride poisoning as a major peril to mankind.

Another statement in the vastly overwhelming documentation in approval of fluoridation of public water supplies appeared in Newsweek magazine on March 30, 1959.

". . . After extensive studies on animals and human beings, Mayo Clinic physicians report that fluoride poisoning cannot occur as a result of drinking water containing one part fluoride per million parts water (the standard proportion used in fluoridation programs) . . ."

As of January 1 fluoridation was in progress in 1,772 places for 34,900,000 people. This does not include many other millions who use fluoride water in its natural solution.

Letters to The Editor

A REPLY
Dear Editor:

There were many false premises, inaccuracies and misconceptions about fluoridation in the column length letter of Mr. Seroy in the May 22 issue of The Sun.

In the first place, fluoridation is now a well-established public health procedure.

It is its 15th year in places where the fluoride content is adjusted to amounts effective in preventing substantial amounts of decay, fifty per cent and more; and, it has provided superior teeth for man through the centuries where it has occurred naturally in optimal amounts (Aurora, Illinois, etc.).

Today more than 40,500,000 people, 1 out of every 3 persons served by community water supplies in 3,544 communities in the United States drink water containing the amounts recommended or higher (in some places with naturally-occurring fluorides).

We are greatly indebted to the Public Health Service of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, for what are described as classical epidemiological studies in the field and laboratory investigations relating to fluorides and dental health, which have taken place since the 1920's, and which continue to this day.

I don't know the source of Mr. Seroy's misinformation, but the age of benefit from fluoridated water is not 4 to 14, it is from the prenatal period through age 18 to 21.

I say "prenatal period" for that is the period during which the primary teeth are laid down and their crowns are calcified to a great degree.

The permanent teeth are laid down and calcified from birth on through 18 to 21 years of age.

Mr. Seroy refers to waterborne fluorides as toxic drugs. Unlike Mr. Seroy, 232 leading American authorities on human nutrition distinguish chemical substances under three categories — nutrients, medications or poisons. They state that "In the trace amounts recommended for public water supplies—one part per million—the function of fluorides is that of the 'nutrient'."

Mr. Seroy confuses water supplies with children. What has been recommended is 1 part of fluoride ion per million parts of water. No one has proposed 1 milligram of fluoride for every child every day. The individual demand for water is closely related to weight and to air temperature.

It is quite obvious that a 100 pound child will drink more water, hence ingest more fluoride than a 10 pound infant. This is what happens in places where the fluoride occurs naturally and where the levels have been adjusted, resulting in teeth that are superior in resisting decay.

In this hypothetical city of 50,000, Mr. Seroy continues with his basic error of thinking only of the children in the 4-10 age group, referring to 12 per cent of the population. Actually in our county the percentage of population is 41-45 per cent; 45 per cent for the group through age 21, or 41 per cent for the group through age 18, including the embryos and fetuses of expectant mothers in both instances.

With better information Mr. Seroy would know that:

1. Sodium silicofluoride, not sodium fluoride, is the most widely used chemical for water fluoridation, for reasons of economy.

2. The chemicals used in water treatment processes, including fluoride compounds, must meet rigid standards of purity and quality that assure safety and effectiveness.

3. Every water treatment plant in the State of California must meet requirements established by the State Board of Health before it is issued a permit. It must request and have received a permit before it can proceed with fluoridation.

4. The variety of water treatment plant procedures are quite well-established.

5. The Health Department recommends fluoridation for all fluoride - deficient water supplies, but the decision to fluoridate the water supply rests with the people in the community or their elected representatives.

6. Many alternatives to water fluoridation have been proposed, but not one has been demonstrated as approaching water fluoridation in safety, economy, and effectiveness.

7. Prescriptions for fluorides may be had from one's own dentist or physician.

Mr. Seroy oversimplifies and underestimates the cost of his gelatin capsule proposal, which is based on his false premise that all children drink 1 milligram of fluoride daily. He fails to take into account that water supplies differ in the amount of natural fluoride present. His plastic spoon or "approximately 2 eye-droppersful per day" can hardly be considered accurate measuring devices. Mr. Seroy proposes, but offers no scientific evidence to indicate that his proposal would be widely practiced or effective; obviously it could not compare to the established effectiveness of water fluoridation.

As for relative costs, at Gregory Gardens and Antioch the cost is somewhat less than 7 cents per person per year. Our five-year survey showed that the 6 to 8 year old children at Antioch had 48 per cent less decay. Reports from all over the country are adding to the impressive evidence that children in places where the water is fluoridated have less decay and that this superiority in dental health will continue far into the adult years.

Fluoridation is unequivocally endorsed by the most important national, state, and local organizations and agencies concerned with health. These include: the U.S. Public Health Service, the American Dental Association, the American Medical Association, the California State Dental Associations, the California State Medical Association, the California State Board of Health, and locally by the Alameda-Contra Costa Medical Association, the Contra Costa Dental Society, and your County Health Department, among many others.

The U.S. Department of Defense policy has already resulted in at least 80 military installations supplying fluoridated water. If there is any place in our society where the ravages of dental decay are evident in the young adult population, it is in the military services. Little wonder then that there is this widespread appreciation of the importance of preventing dental decay for the children at these military installations.

What Is the Answer To the Tax Problem?

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Do you think taxes were high this year? Well, folks, they will be higher next year!

"Hey, boss, what are you trying to do?" yelled Snoopy, the office cat. "Give your readers a heart attack?"

No, Snoopy, I'm just trying to be objective and logical. We have nothing to gain by hiding our heads in sand —everything points to higher taxes.

"Why is it necessary?" Snoopy asked. "Each year more and more people move in and they pay more and more taxes. Certainly our governmental agencies are collecting more tax funds each and every year."

More and more and more . . .

Well, Snoop, I'm not an economist or tax expert, nor am I an apologist for our public agencies which raise taxes. But think for a minute—and the problem becomes clearer. Thousands of people move in (and we can't be selfish and say that they shouldn't come to our wonderful area).

More people mean: more children, more classrooms, more teachers, more schools. There is little doubt that school taxes will continue to climb.

More people mean: more homes, more fire hydrants, more firemen, more fire houses.

More people mean: more traffic, more traffic signs, more policing, more roads and road repairs.

More people mean: more sewer and water facilities, more parks and recreation, more libraries, more flood control.

Existing public facilities become inadequate and must be replaced. Certainly, more people mean more personnel in government. And I have only scratched the surface in citing the problems we face.

Taxes relate to services

Current rate of taxes paid by more and more residents apparently cannot compensate for the services needed. so taxes are increased. We might decry higher taxes but we all demand services. And don't forget that costs have gone up.

"Hey, boss, you're singing a different tune today," Snoopy retorted. "Often you needle county and other government officials. And you're painting an awful gloomy tax picture for the future."

Snoopy, I haven't put the old needle away. Look at the editorial on this page. And I don't think that the tax situation is unsoluble and completely inevitable.

It is essential that every public official, whether a county supervisor or a director of the mosquito abatement district, should carefully look at every dime he asks for in the next budget. Every proposed budget item should under-go an acid test: is it absolutely necessary? If so, can costs be reduced elsewhere in the budget?

Cut and slice the budget

Every budget can be cut—whether it is your home, your business or your government. Our governmental agencies must become more efficient. And we can add only those services that we can afford.

"What else can be done about taxes?" Snoopy asked.

Well, a lot of us should consider carefully how the tax base can be broadened. More heavy industry in the industrial sections of the county. More controlled "working areas" for light industry in feasible locations. Concord is doing an excellent job along these lines.

What do you do about it?

How many of us squawk like mad when we pay our tax bills, groan the rest of the year—BUT DO NOTHING ABOUT IT?

How long has is been since you wrote your congressmen, state legislators or contacted your local officials?

Each year in mid-summer our school districts hold budget hearings, publicized in advance. Ditto other governmental agencies other times of the year. Have you ever been to one? Few, if any, "taxpayers" show up at these important hearings.

Do you ALWAYS vote in the various elections?

What's going on?

Do you keep informed of local and county news—much of which ultimately affects your tax bill, your community and the welfare of your family?

Do you ask questions of candidates as to what they stand for? At almost every election The Sun asks pertinent questions. The answers are printed so you can compare candidates.

If you think something is questionable, do you take the time and trouble to ask the public official for an answer? Have you ever taken a documented problem to the county grand jury? That is what a grand jury is for.

Do you work with others?

Do you participate in your local civic and neighborhood organizations? These and other groups, such as the Taxpayers Association, can be the watchdogs of the tax bill.

"Wait a minute, boss," mewed Snoopy, "You've been on that soap box long enough. By the way, did you ask Assemblyman Waldie and Senator Miller to hold the line on new taxes?"

For goodness sakes, Snoopy, I forgot. I'll do it right now . . .

ACCORDING to the American Cancer Cociety, the skin has two distinct protections against repeated sunburn. They include thickening of the skin, which decreases sensitivity to ultraviolet rays, and tanning, which is the result of sunshine changing normal cell chemicals into melanin, natural body pigment. Albinos, lacking pigment, derive some protection from skin thickening.

Litter Control Is Recommended To County Board

Creation of the position of Litter Control Officer, to be filled by assignment of a deputy sheriff to the detail, has been recommended to the Board of Supervisors by the Contra Costa Highway Cleanup Committee.

If the plan is accepted by the Board, Contra Costa will become the third California county to have a full time anti-litter officer.

The committee took action after a lengthy description of Monterey County's successful program by its Litter Control Officer, Dale Cox, a deputy sheriff.

Chairman W. G. Buchanan suggested that if an officer is assigned by Sheriff Walter Young to the anti-litter program, he should spend a week or a month in Monterey County, working with Cox, and in neighboring Santa Cruz County, which also has an anti-litter program.

COX, WHO WAS requested by the Monterey Board of Supervisors to explain the program to this county, said the dumping of refuse in Monterey County's public places has decreased by about half in the 15 months he has been on the job.

The Monterey program costs from $6000 to $8000 a year, he said, and includes not only enforcement of state and county laws against littering, but a highway cleanup schedule, effected on weekends with the use of county trucks and jail farm prisoners.

Buchanan said the Board of Supervisors will consider the committee's recommendation, and indicated he was personally in favor of the program for Contra Costa.

Area Jaycees Will Add Patio To Hospital

A long-needed outdoor resting area for tuberculosis patients at the Contra Costa County Hospital in Martinez will be realized within the next few weeks according to Mrs. June Terry and Robert Covert, co-chairmen of the rehabilitation and patient services committee of the Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Mrs. Terry and Covert, both of Walnut Creek, have been working with the county planning office for a patio off the TB ward designed to fit in with the existing landscape.

Plans now are completed and ground-breaking is scheduled to begin tomorrow.

IN COOPERATION with the TB Association, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, District 17, which includes all Jaycees in Contra Costa County, will provide labor for the project.

Mr. Covert, a past-president of the Walnut Creek Jaycees, is chairman of the "work parties" being organized.

"Jaycees from all areas of the county will work on the project every Saturday in June," said Covert. "They will lay the cement patio, enclose the area with redwood fencing and supervise additional landscaping."

For their contribution Jaycettes will provide lunch for their husbands. Jaycettes from Walnut Creek, Antioch, Concord and Pleasant Hill have each chosen a Saturday to serve lunch to the work party.

Scholarship Winners to Be Honored at Tea

The California Alumni Scholarship Committee of the Diablo area has announced university scholarship winners.

They are Gary Giddings, San Ramon High School; Donna Hunt, Acalanes High School; Barbara Riley, Dennis Treadway, Norman Smith, and Webb Hadden of Mt. Diablo High School; Judy Trezise and Thomas Hirate of Pleasant Hill High School; and Linda Lancione, Miramonte High School.

At a reception honoring these nine scholarship winners tomorrow at the Orinda home of Mel Arighi, chairman of the Diablo area committee, each will be awarded a pin and certificate.

FUNDS FOR the nine $400 scholarships were raised as a result of a personal solicitation campaign climaxed by the annual alumni "Spring Fling" dance held in April.

The local committee is one of 53 in the state, which have awarded 172 scholarships to the University of California, most of them for $400, for a total value exceeding $62,000.

In its 25 years of activity, the California Alumni Association has provided 3,305 awards to entering students chosen for excellence in scholarship, leadership qualities and financial need.

Fluoridation Is Possible If Governor Signs Bill

The controversial Holmdahl bill looks almost certain to go before Governor Edmund B. Brown for signature within a few days.

So points up East Bay Municipal Utility District Secretary Hart Eastman.

"It is the intention of the board of directors of the EBMUD to put the matter of fluoridation of water supplies up to a vote of the people as soon as it is possible and practical," Eastman says.

THE BILL, originally filed by Senator John Holmdahl, D-Oakland, would permit EBMUD to submit fluoridation issues to the voters.

It was approved by a 54-7 vote in the Assembly last week, after having previously been passed by the Senate.

The bill now goes back to the Senate for consideration of minor Assembly amendments.

It is his understanding, Eastman says, that it would not be possible for EBMUD to call a special election under the new legislation, but that the issue would have to be placed on the ballot in conjunction with either a primary or general election

THE FIRST such election scheduled will not be before the spring of 1960.

According to Eastman, EBMUD directors favor fluoridation of drinking water, but never have been certain of the district's legal right to institute it.

"The legislation now will give the district that legal authority—if the people approve," Eastman said.

The question has, twice in the past, been submitted to the State Attorney General by EBMUD—and opposing rulings were received.

ONE ATTORNEY general said the district could not fluoridate water with approval of voters. Later, however, when Pat Brown was attorney general, this ruling was reversed.

However, Eastman points out, this earlier by-play had no effect on EBMUD's attitude toward flouridation without voter approval.

"The district's own attorney, Harold Raines, always has held that the district did not have that right," Eastman says.

City of Hope Needs Money, Center Says

Once a year the City of Hope National Medical Center, through volunteer workers, calls on local residents for contributions to further a three-point program of patient care, research and post-graduate medical education against such physically, emotionally and financially catastrophic diseases as cancer, leukemia, blood, chest and heart disorders.

Comprising 40 buildings on 95 acres near Pasadena, the City of Hope is a free, non-sectarian medical and research facility whose doors are open to sufferers regardless of race, creed or nationality, from every part of the country.

For 46 years the center, which began as a two-tent desert refuge for tuberculosis victims from eastern cities, has stood as a monument to man's selflessness. At the City, you see, no patient has ever paid.

Last year 26,000 patients received such treatment.

A unique village where patients from distant cities can live with their kind before admission and during their recuperation is a new City of Hope contribution to American hospital annals.

Much, much more remains to be done, however, center representatives say. How much depends on the generosity of all here and throughout the country who share the City's belief that man is his "brother's keeper."

If you help, there is hope. Give all you can, the center asks, so that others may live.

Dramateurs Open Readings To Be Held Tuesday Night

An open reading will be held by the Dramateurs Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Town Hall, Lafayette.

At this time tryouts will be held for summer and fall productions.

ANYONE interested in acting, working backstage or in doing any of the interesting things around the theater is welcome to attend the Tuesday meeting.

It is not necessary to be a Dramateur member to attend the open readings.

So, here's your chance to participate in the area's foremost little theatre group.

IN THE PAST, the Dramateurs have presented such outstanding plays as "Gigi," "The Fourposter," "Bus Stop," "Desk Set," "Separate Tables," and "Anastasia."

Others were "Tea House of the August Moon," "Uncle Harry," "Summer and Smoke," and "My Three Angels."

THE MOST recent production was "The Rivals," which just closed its run at Town Hall.

The Dramateurs have spent much time in renovating the interior of the hall.

The Lafayette Improvement Association, owners of the building, have started to repair the exterior of Town Hall.

A marquee may be constructed at the main entrance of the hall.

IT IS planned to build window boxes and plant flowers.

No announcement has yet been made concerning possible productions.

At the open reading these may be discussed.

So, make a date—next Tuesday, June 16, 8 p.m. in Town Hall. Everyone is welcome.

TOWN HALL is at the corner of School Street and Moraga Road, Lafayette. Telephone is AT 4-9965.

Haitian Holiday to Top Art Center's Garden Show

The Valley Art Center has chosen the theme Haitian Holiday for the Art in Garden show to be held in the Willaim Freeman gardens, 3905 Happy Valley Road in Lafayette from 4 to 7 p.m. June 28.

Featured at 5:30 p.m. will be Ruth Beckford and Company specializing in primitive dance.

Miss Beckford heads a group of 10 dancers and three bongo drummers, steeped in African and Afro-Caribbean traditions.

A TRIBUTE to the strength of these dancers, Miss Beckford says, is their ability to sustain interest on a bare stage, often with few properties.

Haitian wood sculpture from the Ruth Beckford collection, as well as primitive wood sculpture, woven baskets, carved masks and other art objects from the Richmond Art Collection will be exhibited at the show.

Mrs. Frank Mansfield, Orinda, will be exhibit chairman.

Working with the committee will be Martin Metal, director of the junior center of Arts and Sciences in Oakland.

TROPICAL refreshments will be made available by Mrs. Howard Holmes, Lafayette, the social chairman and her committee.

Proceeds from the show will go toward a permanent art center building, according to Richard Ward, Lafayette, center president.

Donation tickets at $2 per person may be secured from Mrs. Bruce Anderson, 566 Miner Road, Orinda.

Gordon Gibson has been named director of the Acalanes High School District Adult Education Program, according to an announcement this week by Neil M. Parsons, district superintendent.

Gibson will replace the current director, Arthur Dambacher, who has been appointed principal of Oroville Union High School, Oroville, California.

Dambacher has headed the Acalanes Adult Center program since 1953.

During that time adult participation in the program has grown from 2,500 to 4,500 students per year.

Gibson is currently head counselor at Miramonte High School.

In another appointment, Robert Callan, Miramonte physical education instructor has been named to the post of dean of boys at Miramonte, replacing the current dean, Robert Rowe, who has resigned to perform graduate studies at Stanford University.

Meridian Scouts Will Talk Plans At Acalanes Hi

Joseph De Maria, San Francisco business executive and resident of Orinda, will preside for the first time as chairman of the Meridian District, Boy Scouts of America, when the district committee meets at Acalanes High School this Wednesday.

On the agenda for the meeting will be the appointment of chairmen for the six operating committees of the district.

A new schedule of training and activities recently was developed by the committee for the 1959-60 program.

MEMBERS OF the committee will survey the program, work out a time schedule for developing activities and consider the necessary manpower to handle the program.

This will be a busy year as the district joins the nation in celebration of the 50th anniversary of the Boy Scouts. The National Jamboree at Colorado Springs will be a highlight of the year.

The local council will hold a jubilee camporee concurrently with the Colorado celebration so that scouts can celebrate the anniversary in the local council.

Activities to be considered will include the camporee, district exposition and training courses for leaders in cubbing, scouting and exploring as well as for junior leaders.

When Gladiolas Are Six Inches High--Spray 'Em

Here are chores for you to do in the garden this week:

When glads are six inches high, spray to control thrips.

Repeated sprayings at two or three-week intervals provide insurance against infestation. See your local nurseryman for the right spray.

Mulch around camellias, rhododendrons, azaleas and fuchsias to conserve moisture in the soil.

A good layer of peat or planting mix does the trick.

For a longer vegetable harvest, make new sowings of carrots, radishes, beets, squash, cucumbers and beans.

Parsley can still be sown also.

Bearded iris can be divided after bloom—now or later. If you haven't divided them in three years, they probably need it.

Keep after roses. A feeding is in order this month. Continued deep irrigation is always the rule.

And keep spraying if aphis or other pests show up.

BUMPER-TO-BUMPER

Possibly the best way to get an idea of just how many motor vehicles we have in California is to line them up visually on our state highways, points out the National Automobile Club.

If the drivers of all our more than eight million motor vehicles were to get their vehicles out on our more than 33,000 lane-miles of state highways at the same time, each vehicle would have about 22 feet of space.

Captain Fortune Will Be At Capwell's for Kiddies

Peter Abenheim, better known as TV's popular Captain Fortune, will be at Capwell's—Walnut Creek parking lot at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

Children and grown-ups alike are welcome to meet the originator of such famous characters as Captain Impossible and Tom-Tom the cat.

Between 2 and 2:30 p.m. Captain Fortune will entertain his audience with sketching and some of his television acts. He also will present and autograph copies of his latest book, Captain Impossible at Sea.

The adventures of Captain Fortune are seen throughout northern California over KPIX and Abenheim makes guest appearances across the country.

Abenheim was one of the first to recognize the new world of entertainment for children with the inception of television.

Have Lunch With Us, Say WC Area Elks

"Stan" Estep, of Stan's Brick House, announces that luncheon is served from 11 a.m. until 3 p.m. at the lodge.

Estep's services have been available since last Monday, say Elks, urging active support by all lodge members.

Dixon Farmer Named Top Athlete

Sets 53.3 Record in 440 Hurdle Race at Stanford

Dixon Farmer, the Miramonte great track athlete, has been selected as Northern California's prep athlete of the year.

Farmer, a graduating senior at Miramonte High, Orinda, has been making headlines as a prep athlete since his freshman days.

A picture runner, he is a top performer who, on more than one occasion, has copped three firsts and then has run a leg on the winning relay team.

Farmer is 18 and carries a supple 158 pounds on his 5-11½ frame, which has enabled him to crack one record after another.

HIS VERSATILITY is shown by the fact that he has placed up in decathlon events in which he competed with those beyond high school level.

He has capable marks in the shot, pole vault and high jump, to just mention a few, but this year concentrated on the low hurdles, broad jump and 440-yard run.

In two state meets he made enough points to place Miramonte fourth in the final standings.

In the recent state meet held at Bakersfield, he was a two-time winner, taking the 440 in 48.6 and the 180 yard low hurdle in 19.2.

He has enough school meet and county marks to fill a book.

DURING HIS stay at Miramonte, he also took part in football and basketball but chose to concentrate on track. He hopes to land a berth on the United States Olympic team.

Present plans call for him to enter Occidental College where he will major in journalism.

IN A MEET held at Stanford last Saturday, Farmer entered and won the 440-yard hurdle race in a new record time of 53.3.

It is in this event that he is planning to specialize for the Olympics.

Lafayette and Walnut Creek In Legion Tie

LAST SUNDAY'S results found San Pablo setting Martienz down with their first loss as they won 8-3.

Concord kept their slate clean as they edged the Orinda nine 1-0 in a game which was only decided in the ninth on a squeeze play.

Lafayette and Walnut Creek battled to a 3-3 tie at the W.C. Municipal park. The game was called due to a time limit.

Richmond kept their slate clean when they edged El Cerrito 3-2 while El Sobrante slid by Harry Ells in another tight one 1-0.

Saturday's games found Concord edging Walnut Creek 4-3 while El Cerrito nailed Lafayette 8-1.

HARDTOP HI LITES

By JEAN McGUIRE

Fans at Contra Costa Speedway in Pacheco saw one of the hardest fought main event battles of the season last Saturday night, when LeRoy Geving wrenched the victory away from Vallejo's Bill Hammond who placed second, and third finishing Pee Wee Waybright of Oakland.

Geving, a racing veteran from Petaluma, missed the first three weeks of action this year due to a broken leg, but is continuing his surge up the point ladder in a big way since his return. Winning the feature and a heat race, plus a second in the trophy dash, boosts him into ninth place.

JOHNNY FRANKLIN of Santa Rosa, is still leading the field with 271 points. However he lost ground for the second straight week, as he missed qualifying for the main and finished second to Tom Greene of San Francisco, in the 15 lap semi. Defending champion Wally Baker, outscored Franklin for the night's work but slipped to fourth in the point standings with 205.

Pee Wee Waybright jumped into second with 218 points, as Gene Dudley of Napa moved up to third with 207.

Concord's Jack Huddleston put on his usual excellent show of driving, winning the second heat, and coming in third in the trophy dash. Jack's number 43 is one of the sharpest looking cars on the track, and his driving skill keeps it that way.

WALNUT CREEK'S Bill Rassett took second in the first heat, and Cliff Bennett of Pacheco looked really terrific as he fought to second spot in the third heat

Jack Clayton of Pleasant Hill managed to take fourth place in the second heat despite blown head gaskets and a sour running engine. Clayton was slated for the semi main, buit it was decided to pull the car from the event.

Small car enthusiasts will be happy to know that the first midget-hardtop racing show is scheduled for tomorrow night at program will feature a 5 lap main the Pacheco oval. The combined event in each division on the quarter mile track. The midget pilots, racing at Stockton and Sacramento last weekend, are expected to converge about 35 strong. Heading the field will be Mike McGreevy, current point leader from Hayward; Johnny Baldwin, three-time BCRA champ from San Carlos; Dave Moses, Ed Andrews, Joe Leonard, Norm Rapp and others.

Pleasant Hill Spikes Field

Pleasant Hill School walked off with the top score by a wide margin at the recent Invitational Track Meet recently held at Las Lomas High School for intermediate schools throughout the Diablo Valley area.

Joe McElroy, City of Walnut Creek Recreation Department, sponsors of the event, announces the following scores: Pleasant Hill, 70; Parkmead, 22; Stanley, 20; Walnut Creek, 14½; Alamo, 9; Pine Grove, 6½; Fairview, 3½; and Buena Vista, 1.

The top four individualss in each event were awarded emblems signifying places in the event.

All boys whose names are on waiting list for team placements in the leagues of the Boys' Baseball program are reminded by McElroy that they should report for practice each Saturday at City Park, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

IT GULPS TEN MILLION GALLONS OF WATER EACH DAY!

No fooling. This huge refinery, employing 4,000 East Bay people, guzzles 10,000,000 gallons of fresh water every 24 hours. Without it, the plant would shut down tomorrow!

Now, we're not trying to tell you that pure, low-priced water is the only reason so much money-spending, job-making industry locates in Alameda and Contra Costa counties. Of course it isn't. But . . . you can't run an oil refinery, a food processing plant or a laundry without water. Not even for one day!

That's where your water system comes in. (Of course we mean "East Bay MUD"!) It provides industry—and your home, too—with a plentiful supply of pure, filtered mountain water at the lowest rates in the Bay Area. And, thanks to the Water Development Project you approved last June, there'll be plenty of water for years to come.

Booklets on water? Naturally. Write 2130 Adeline Street, Oakland 23.

Bigger, Better Fruit Obtained From Thinning

Here are things to do in your garden this week:

To increase size of the fruit and to avoid breaking limbs, apricots, peaches and plums should be thinned (approximately 6 inches apart) when the fruit is about an inch in diameter.

Shop nurseries for canned roses in bloom. You'll get a free flower show plus a chance to pick just the rose you want in the garden.

Citrus fruits should be planted now. Try the dwarfs in tubs for use on decks and patios.

Mildew is easier to prevent than to cure.

If it is a threat in your garden, spray roses and begonias and other vulnerable spots before it shows up.

Pinch back annuals and other nursery transplants as soon as they're established.

'Nature's Way' Is Lots of Fun

By DICK OSBORN

"When sausages cool off, they're like cremated caterpillars!"

"It takes a lot of experience to become naive."

Listening to such lines as these roll from the tongues of members of the cast of "Nature's Way," the audience had a delightful time Saturday and Sunday night.

The play, a comedy by Herman Wouk, was presented by the Center Stage Players of the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center, and they did a very creditable job.

UNFORTUNATELY, if you missed the play last weekend you won't get a chance to see it, because it was a two-night stand.

The comedy — which is just that — was perfectly suited to the efforts of a little theatre group. The casting was good, and the performance relaxed.

In fact, the nicest part about the whole evening was that the players appeared to be enjoying themselves. Consequently, it was easy to sit back and do the same as a member of the audience.

The play makes not pretentions at being anything but a light comedy. There's no message, no symbolism, and plenty of fun. Especially to be congratulated is Don Sterns as Dr. Bacher. He played his part to perfection and kept the audience loose with laughter as he explained his "exercises."

DICK PEAN AND Tianne Abramovitz did very well as the leads, Billy and Maggie Turk, and they were ably supported by Macy Spellman as Mr. Chaney, the ubiquitous tax consultant and Sid Lifton as Vivian Voles, the "odd" collaborater with Billy Turk.

Doing equally fine jobs were Marge Sterns, Sid Lifton, Leon Cohen, Trudi Selznick, Ben Brudney, Herb Martin, Art Weisberg, and Herman Stutz.

Pearl Bloom did justice to a "colorful" part as the interior decorator and really dressed to fit the occasion, right up to the two-foot cigarette holder.

Adele Bakon deserves plaudits for the directing job. Her talents were apparent in the fact that everything went off like clockwork.

THE ONLY UNFORTUNATE circumstance was the seating, which couldn't be helped. The room in which the play was held at the center is not a theater, and it is very difficult to see if you are sitting more than 10 or 12 rows from the stage.

But the presentation of "Nature's Way" did exactly what it was designed to do — provided an evening of pleasant, entertainment — and after all, what more need one ask of an amateur group?

Shriners Plan Gala Outing

The Contra Costa Shrine Club says plans are all set for a family day beginning at 11 a.m. on July 19 at Turtle Rock Ranch on Mt. Diablo.

The day will be a joint effort by the Contra Costa and Delta Shrine Clubs, say reports, which add that all facilities for fun and frivolity will be provided for enjoyment of those attending.

Available will be a heated swimming pool, a wading pool for tots, patio dancing, ping-pong tables, horseshoes, volley-ball, badminton, croquet and baseball.

IF A SWIMMER — bring your own towel and suit, say Shriners.

Door prizes also will be on hand, and there will be prizes for children's games.

The day will be capped with a barbecue dinner.

Uniform of the day will be sports clothes—no fez, say both clubs.

Reservations should be made now through the records office or chairman John Kerr, Box 261, Diablo.

Double Takers To Hold Meet

The Mothers of Twins Club, East Contra Costa Double Talk Chapter, will holds its monthly meeting at Orinda Willows in Orinda on Wednesday at 7 p.m.

Dr. M. Thebaut of Oakland will be guest at the dinner meeting, speaking on the Middle Years or Dangerous Age.

County Lads Will Graduate

Contra Costa County boys will be among 40 youngsters taking part in graduation exercises Sunday at Hanna Boys' Center, the California Boys Town near Sonoma.

The home's director, the Rt. Rev. William L. O'Connor, will be baccaleaureate speaker.

Mary Doyle Therapy Unit Welcomes New Members

The Mary Doyle unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center met recently at the Diablo home of Mrs. Willard Reinheimer, with Mrs. John Rasmussen, president, conducted the business meeting.

Final plans were made at the meeting for the Diablo Decorama, scheduled for October 1 — 11 at the Danville Hotel, with Mrs. Ridgway Woodburn as chairman, assisted by Mrs. C. Wadsworth White and Mrs. Kenneth Richardson.

Mrs. Rasmussen announced the retirement of Mrs. Richardson as adviser to the Parakeets, junior auxiliary sponsored by the Mary Doyle unit, and the appointment of Mrs. George Riser as advisor of the senior group of Parakeets.

The junior girls will be supervised in their volunteer services by Mrs. Thomas Graham and Mrs. Lloyd Davis.

Mrs. Alfred M. Sperry reported some unit members are providing regular transportation for patients and that others are giving assistance at the center.

Mrs. Jack Von Wald and Mrs. John Keeling told of a recent successful drive for articles for the Therapy Thrift Shop in Walnut Creek.

Members decided to have a summer social affair which would include all members and their husbands.

Welcomed into active membership were Mrs. Walter Nervik, Mrs. Manfred Lindner, and Mrs. Van M. Williams.

Tea was served by cohostesses Mrs. Robert S. Gould, Mrs. Harlan Geldermann, and Mrs. J. W. Irvin.

Raised bed gardening cuts down maintenance and makes the homeowner an outdoor "decorator." And the University of California has developed an almost foolproof soil mix for raised beds. U.C.'s system calls for ½ peat moss, ½ sand, plus fertilizers. The results: controlled fertilizing and watering, low maintenance, no more problem soil, and a lovely garden! Sunshine Peat Moss is ideal for the new mix. The reason: it's Sphagnum, best because it has long-lasting — and the highest — organic content, and holds the most water.

First Awards Assembly Held at Miramonte High

Twenty-three awards were presented to 16 seniors at Miramonte High School's first annual awards assembly last Friday.

Babette Ambler and Maxine Anderson received the first American Association of University Women's award for the highest scholastic achievement.

Miss Ambler was also awarded a $100 check from the Pacific Savings and Loan Assocaition for scholastic ability.

As an added award, she was given formal recognition of her recently attained National Merit Scholarship.

THE BANK of America awards were presented to six seniors, three of which were also awarded trophies.

The six certificates of merit winners were Joan Fowkes, fine arts; Barbara Strauss, English; Peter Lewis, science; Mike Wilmar, social studies; Edward Owen, math; Vic Johnson, foreign languages.

The three trophy winners for the general areas of liberal arts, fine arts, and science and mathematics were awarded to Mike Wilmar, Joan Fowkes, and Peter Lewis, respectively.

Mike Wilmar received extra recognition by receiving a $50 award for attaining second place in zone competition in the field of social studies.

George (Bicky) Clifford, senior class president, received the first annual Rotary trophy for the senior attaining the highest level of scholastic, citizenship, and leadership qualities.

TWO SENIORS. Randy Young and Emma Reinhardt, received the first Mirador (school publication) loyalty awards in the respective fields of athletics and student affairs.

These awards, elected by the faculty, are based on such qualities as consistancy, cooperation, dependability, effort and devotion.

The remainder of the awards were formal recognition given to school scholarships received by Ed Owen, M.I.T., Cal Tech, and Harvey Mudd; Peter Lewis and Douglas Moorehead, Stanford; and Linda Lancione, U.C.

Mention was also made by Principal James A. Lewis of the following scholarships won last summer at the Contra Costa County Fair: Pat Quinn, science ($500); Sam Schmidt, crafts ($500); and Pat Wilke, art ($300).

Lewis stated, "This first class has set a standard that will be goal for all the succeeding classes to imitate. We are very proud of them."

County Drive Sets Record, Says Prexy

Contra Costa county's 1959 crusade for funds to fight cancer is the most successful in the county's history, Dr. Frederick A. Pellegrin, president of the county branch of the American Cancer Society which sponsors the effort, announced recently.

Contra Costa County, sixth largest contributor among counties of the state, now has a total of more than $60,000 for research, lifesaving education and service to patients within the next fiscal year, Dr. Pellegrin said.

All area chairmen were awarded recognition ribbons for their work during the April Crusade at the meeting, by Guy Spencer, county crusade chairman.

New officers to guide the cancer society during the coming fiscal year were presented by nominating committee chairman Irving H. Magill, and unanimously elected.

Those re-elected to take office in September included president Dr. Pellegrin of Walnut Creek; first vice president Dr. Charles J. Hart of Walnut Creek; treasurer Julian N. Stern of Lafayette and secretary, Dr. Jonas Schreider of Walnut Creek.

Jerry Gillivan is Elected at Cal Poly

Jerry Gillivan is a member of the 15-piece dance band, the Collegians, at California State Polytechnic College, and has been elected dance chairman for the school term 1959-1960.

Gillivan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Gillivan, 160 Camina Don Miguel. He is a 1958 graduate of Acalanes High School. He is a freshman electronics engineering major at Cal Poly.

Baccalaureate Ceremonies Held At Miramonte

Miramonte High School's first graduating class and their parents and friends attended the school's first baccalaureate last Sunday.

The baccalaureate was held in the school's gymnasium.

It started with a processional in which all the graduates marched up the aisle in their green and white robes.

The invocation and scripture reading were given by Reverend Albert Hidy, pastor of the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church.

Following the girls' glee rendition of "Halls of Ivy," under the direction of Gordon Mallory, the baccalaureate address was given by Reverend Albert Lucas, pastor of the St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

Concluding the service the congregation sang "Faith of Our Fathers," and the benediction was given by Reverend Hidy.

The class of '59 marched to Wagner's "Tannhauser" played by organist Mrs. Tom Fahey.

Court of Honor Held by Orinda Boy Scout Troop

A court of honor was held recently at the Scout Hut by Orinda Troop 207.

The rank of Life Scout was awarded to Phil Gardner, Garth Hudelson and Ronald Winkler.

The following fourteen scouts were awarded the rank of first class: Geoffrey Anderson, Peter Boyle, Todd Decker, Doug Fastabend, Richard Fiset, Tom Gilmore, Mike Kersten, Bob Lee, Bill Loughman, Archie Meader, Chip Monahan, Bob Riddell, Steve Scarich, and Bill Sutliffe.

Greg Felice and Ronald O'Flyng became Second Class Scouts and Richard Roos, John Sease, Kenneth Twining, and Dan Williams became Tenderfoot Scouts.

MERIT BADGES were awarded as follows: Four to Garth Hudelson, two to Steve Cantrill, two to Phil Gardner, and one each to Tom Gilmore, Mike Kersten, Bill Lee, Bob Lee, and Ronald Winkler.

Scoutmaster for Troop 207 is Don Anderson, and D. E. Winkler is troop committee chairman.

Patrol leaders are Steve Cantrill, Phil Gardner, Mike Gilmore, Garth Hudelson, and Ronald Winkler.

The Buffalo Patrol won the perpetual trophy for the greatest number of advancements since the last Court of Honor.

The Flaming Arrow Patrol won a trip to a Giants' baseball game for the highest total of points for the year in all phases of troop activities.

Youngsters Graduate From Orinda Nursery School

Months of preparation for the Orinda Nursery School picnic and graduation were completed this week.

On Tuesday the younger children, 2½ to 4 years old, ended their semester with a picnic.

To the delight of the children there was a Shetland pony to ride and the Carnation merry-go-round.

This was followed by a picnic lunch, each child a Giants fan with caps presented by Stokley-Van Kamp.

THE FOUR year to kindergarten children received their diplomas on Wednesday.

In the graduating class were 50 boys and 30 girls.

The big thrill of the day was a surprise visit by television's Skipper Sedley and his puppet King Fuddle.

The program ended with a picnic lunch and fun was had by all.

Chairman for the Tuesday picnic was Mrs. Thomas Howard.

Mrs. Robert Haaf was chairman for the graduation day.

The children in the older group at nursery school concluded their semester's activities with home visits. All the children had the opportunity to take these visits to each other's homes, going in groups of 10. The children visited the home of Mrs. William Henning where they saw new born ducklings. A special treat was the new colt of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Betz. The Betzs raise horses at their home at 12 Sunrise Hill, Orinda. They do not have children in nursery school, so this visit was a very generous offer.

Nursery schools, as well as higher education, must keep abreast of modern trends in education. The national convention for Nursery School Associations for Early Childhood Education is being held in Los Angeles. The Orinda Nursery School is sending its director, Mrs. W. A. Patterson, to the convention at the Statler Hotel, June 17 through 20.

Barbara Henrici To Study Abroad

A group of 42 college juniors will sail from New York City August 29 as the Hamilton College "Junior Year in France" program begins its third year.

Included in this year's contingent will be Miss Barbara Henrici, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rafael Henrici of 1108 Thompson Road. She has just completed her sophomore year at the University of California.

Hamilton's Junior Year program, begun in 1957, is open to young men and women attending any accredited American college or university.

The 42 students who will be in the group with Miss Henrici will sail from New York on the SS Flandre and are due to dock at Le Havre on Sept. 5.

They will spend two days in Paris and then travel to Biarritz, in southern France, for a preliminary session of six weeks.

They will return to Paris late in October to begin classes there on November 2.

Most of the students work will be done at schools like the Institut Brittanique and the Ecole d'-Etudes Politiques.

In both Biarritz and Paris, the students will live with French families.

The group will wind up their years' fund raising activities with a trinket tea at the home of Pat Higgins, date to be announced later.

Air and ground forces were launched against aggressor forces involving the newly-redesigned helicopter assault carrier USS Princeton from which attacking troops launched assaults at inland targets in the latest employment of the corps' vertical envelopment doctrine.

The two-week maneuver was the most extensive air-ground landing exercise to be conducted on the Southern California coast since 1957.

WHAT'S DOING

Howard Greenhalgh, your Telephone Manager in Orinda

With more and more cars on the road, safe driving is a big part of any telephone man's job. Take our telephone installers for example. Each installer takes a special course in "defensive driving" before he gets behind the wheel of any telephone company car or truck. And to make sure he doesn't forget the things he's learned, he takes a check-up ride periodically, and a complete driving test every 2 years. What's more, he even has his eyes tested every 3 years. Other telephone people who drive company cars also get training in "defensive driving". This extra care helps us to be better drivers and do our part to make the streets safer for everyone. And we believe we serve you best when we serve you safely.

The Twin Bridges of the Carquinez Strait are on this year's cover of the Contra Costa Telephone Directory.
